

Capitalization Rules

1. The first word in a sentence
2. Proper nouns (names of specific people and places)
3. The pronoun “I”
4. Days of the week, months and holidays but not seasons
5. The first word of a quotation
6. The names of deities and holy books like: God and the Bible
7. Major words in the titles of books, songs and articles
8. Directions like North and South but only when used as specific places like: I lived in the South
9. Time periods like: The Great Depression