My Character and I Comparison

Directions: On the left side, write characteristics for the main character in your story. On the right side, write characteristics for you. In the middle, write the characteristics you and your character share.

A Venn diagram consisting of two overlapping circles. The left circle is intended for writing characteristics of the main character, the right circle for characteristics of the student, and the overlapping area in the center for shared characteristics. Each circle is filled with horizontal lines to facilitate writing.
